Increasing Postage.

We are glad to see our contemporary, the nquirer, deprecating any scheme for the crease of postage, until, at least, searching aquiry has been made into the expenditures and every reduction made that is possible.-The Post Office," says the Enquirer, "is emhatically the poor man's Department of the deral Government. It, especially, of all he departments of the Federal Government, aches down to the cottage of the poor man. and we should prefer to see this Department kept at the present rates rather than see a return to higher prices. To make this Deartment self-sustaining will do but little good, if the present system of reckless expenlitures is to be continued. Public Meeting in Fairfax.

Pursuant to previous notice, a large meeting of the Whig and American party of Fairfax | dent in the chair)-County, was held in the Court-House, on Monday, the 17th instant.

On motion of Wm. H. Dulany, esq., the meeting was organized by calling S. T. Stu-ART, esq., to the chair, and appointing R. L. NEVITT, Secretary.

The Chairman in brief but eloquent terms having stated the object of the meeting Maj. H. W. Thomas proposed the following Resolutions which were unanimously adopted. Resolved. That we heartily approve of the proposition to hold a Convention in the City of Richmond on the 10th of February, to nominate candidates for Governor, Ac., in opposition to the ticket recently nominated at Petersburg. Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting appoint Delegates from the County at large to represent this county in said Convention, and in the event of any other Whig being in Richmond at the time, from this county, that he be requested to act as Delegate, and in the event of their being no representative from this county, that Thomas B sorbents of the postal revenues."—Richmond P Ingram and Robert Ridgway be requested to

Resolved. That the Whigs of Fairfax do now, as formerly, adhere to the doctrine contained in the Whig Platform: that the revenues for the economical administration of the Government should be mainly derived from a duty on imports, and not from direct taxation, and that in levying such du ties, sound policy requires a just discrimination and protection from fraud, by *pecific duties where practicable, whereby suitable encouragement may be assured to American Industry equally to all classes and to all portions of the country.

Resolved, That the Constitution vests in Congress the power to construct works of internal improvement, national and general in their character. whenever they are necessary for the protection and facility of commerce with foreign nations and among the States. Resolved, That the recommendation of Mr. Buchanan, the Democratic President of the United States, in his late message to Congress, to adopt specific duties in lieu of ad valorem, as being better calculated to prevent frauds and afford incidental protection to our manufactures, and recognizing the Constitutional power of Congress to aid in the construction of works of Internal Improvements. meets with our cordial approbation, and affords additional evidence that no matter what party may govern this country, to ensure its prosperity and advancement, recurrence must be had to the princi-ples of the the National Whig Party of the Union The Chair, under the second resolution.

COMMUNICATED. A communication, which appeared in the Gazette of Thursday, under the signature of Murray, relating to debating societies, I think was calculated to reflect, though it may have been undesignedly, upon those young gentlemen of our community, who are engaged in this praiseworthy and commendable enterprise. One would infer from the reading of the communication, that the debating soall the literary associations in our community society referred to, nor would I say anything in defence of it. But, if left to judge of the character of the society from the place and time of the meetings. I would deem some other name more appropriate than that of ". Moreover, I would say, Debating Society. for the information of the correspondent, that I have the honor to belong to one of the literary societies of our city, and have yet to hear from its members, an immoral word, or an expression unbecoming a gentleman, dur-

Resolved. That we heartily approve of holding the proposed Whig and American Convention in the city of Richmond, on the 10th of February next, and that the Chairman appoint --to represent this city and county in said Conven-

The vote being taken, the substitute was inanimously adopted. On motion of W. D. Stuart, the blank was filled with one hundred. George P. Wise, having called C. S. Price amble and resolution, which were adopted:

Whereas, The policy and principles of both the Whig and American parties of the country have always fostered labor in all its various branches and maintain that labor is the only capital that gives independence to a people and country, this meeting view with astonishment that any of those who live by individual labor and mechanical those who live by individual labor and mechanical industry, go with the party which have ever warred, and continue to war, against their interest :- And whereas, we see with much satisfaction that the President of the United States and many representatives in Congress, democrats, are repudiating e idea of non-industrial protection; be it Resolved, That this meeting of the citizens of Alexandria, of old Virginia, feeling deeply the pressure of losing our manufactures by a opposite to our expressed principles, and detrimento our interests, thereby closing our workshops, throwing out of employment many of our most valuable citizens-we most cordially invite all those interested in the Laborer, Mechanic, Merchant, and all others whose calling is legion, and even the President and those of the democratic Representatives in Congress, from whose eyes the delusion is fast falling away, to help us re-instate our country to what she was, and make her as good as Washington's policy intended her to be-"Inde-pendent within herself."
